

Roads and Trails

Town highways and trails are under the general supervision and control of the selectboard of the town in which they are located. The selectboard has the authority to regulate or restrict the use of highways and trails.

---

If you have questions about this or any of our other municipal law topics, resources, and services, click here:

Ask a Question