

Emergency Housing Update Effective July 1, 2021

June 22, 2021

June 22, 2021. Vermont's Department for Children and Families (DCF) has released a memo outlining the new eligibility criteria that will be implemented for households housed during the pandemic starting on July 1. While this represents narrower criteria than during the public health emergency, it is more expansive – particularly for housing households with children, people with disabilities, and older Vermonters – than in the past. DCF anticipates that approximately two-thirds of the households in motels will continue to be eligible for an additional 84 days come July 1, 2021.
