

Vermont Public Records Act (On Demand)

Recorded sessions reflect current applications of the law at the time of the recording. For more current information on your roles and responsibilities and for access to our models, info sheets, and FAQs, please refer to our MAC Topics Pages. Please do not distribute this page.

Are you the custodian of a public record? Under Vermont's Public Records Act, municipal officials are responsible for providing timely and effective responses to records requests. In this session, we will summarize the definitions, exemptions, deadlines, costs, and nuances of the law to best meet your responsibilities and avoid costly penalties. We will also examine several of the most common and confusing exemptions.

Presenter: Carl Andeer, Staff Attorney II, VLCT Municipal Assistance Center

Recorded: March 3, 2022

If you have specific questions about your municipal roles and responsibilities, please contact the VLCT member Municipal Inquiry Service at info@vlct.org or call 1-800-649-7915.

