

What does “force account labor” mean?

Force Account labor is labor performed by non-contracted forces (such as City, County, or State employees).

