

May 13, 2025

Animal Cruelty Investigation Considerations Training 6/21/25

Animal Cruelty Investigations: Considerations for Vermont Animal Control Officers is a free training for law enforcement, animal control, and code enforcement officers as well as veterinarians and prosecutors.

Saturday, June 21, 2025

9:30 AM – 3:45 PM (with a one-hour lunch break)

Vermont Law and Graduate School, 164 Chelsea Street, South Royalton, VT 05068

REGISTER through Humane World for Animals

Topics to be covered:

- Assisting law enforcement with animal welfare complaints: The Vermont Animal Care & Control Professional's role
- Review of animal cruelty statute
- Civil forfeiture procedures
- Animal care standards
- Local, state, and national resources

- Community engagement and de-escalation
- Writing civil tickets

Approved for continuing education units by the National Animal Care & Control Association

Joanne Bourbeau, Northeast Regional Director, State Affairs

jboubeau@humaneworld.org

C 301-529-3378

humaneworld.org

Attachments

animal-control-officer-training-2025-0621.pdf

