

Housing Infrastructure Project

A set of infrastructure improvements that support a specific CHIP housing development. These improvements must be directly tied to enabling the housing development. These improvements may or may not be located on the Housing Development Site.

