A housing development in which at least 25% of the units are for households earning 150% or less of area median income (AMI) and also subject to affordability restrictions until the Final Repayment Date. Units must be used as the tenant's or owner's primary residence during such time. A municipality with an application serving a moderate-income housing development may retain up to 85% of the education tax increment and must retain at least 85% of the new municipal tax increment.
