In September, VLCT PACIF was notified that it had once again earned recognition from the Association of Governmental Risk Pools (AGRiP). AGRiP Recognition is a method for member pools to conduct a comprehensive self-assessment of internal operational procedures against industry best practices. Any pool that meets the Advisory Standards is granted Recognition for three years, helping assure its governing body and members it is operating as effectively as they expect. Only approximately a quarter of AGRiP member pools have achieved AGRiP Recognition.
