November has arrived faster than many of us expected. With open enrollment efforts progressing smoothly, employee benefit education sessions completed, and next year's plans finalized, much has already been accomplished. As anticipation builds for Thanksgiving and the holiday season ahead, there are still important initiatives to tackle before the year comes to a close.

Let's continue the great work and maintain our momentum through the remainder of the year.

Compliance Reminders

Although there is still time to prepare, the deadline will arrive sooner than expected. Gag Clause Attestations are due December 31, 2026.

As a reminder, the Gag Clause Attestation is designed to promote transparency between health plans and insurance carriers. This annual compliance requirement confirms that provider contracts do not contain clauses that restrict the disclosure of pricing or quality information, thereby supporting informed decision-making for plan participants.

Employers and plan sponsors are required to submit this attestation annually to ensure compliance with the transparency standards. If you are uncertain about the attestation process or whether your carrier will submit on your behalf, please contact your account manager for guidance.

Current National Headlines in the News

With HR and Employee Benefits topics regularly in the news, staying current on what's really important can often be challenging. For the most current listing of those articles, read the October 21 Acrisure Weekly Digest.

Upcoming Training Reminder

On November 19 from 2PM to 3PM ET, Acrisure will be holding AI and Compensation: How Artificial Intelligence is Shaping Compensation. This training webinar is a open to all VLCT members and free of charge.

Artificial Intelligence is changing how companies approach compensation strategies, management and administration. This webinar will explore some of the ways AI can influence compensation management, both directly and indirectly, as well as the opportunities, challenges and considerations that may arise.

This event is a part of Acrisure's continued education series and free of charge. Registration is required, so be sure to sign up in advance.
