

Terri Crawford

Senior Claims Specialist

tcrawford@vlct.org [1]

Terri is responsible for handling property and casualty claims. Since joining VLCT in 1993, she has advanced her skills along the full range of claim difficulty: from basic auto and property cases to more complicated cases involving heavy equipment, total loss, or liability claims involving law enforcement, employment, or public officials. Most notably, Terri works on catastrophe claims. She enjoys working with members and providing them with quality claim service.

Fun Fact: Terri loves spending time with her family, and enjoys boating and riding ATVs and snowmobiles in the back country of Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine.
