2019 Weekly Legislative Report No. 14

The Legislature Grinds On: What's Next for VLCT Priorities? Crossover is long in the rearview mirror and legislative committees are now working on initiatives that have been delivered to them in bill form from the other chamber. This is the time during the session when differences in priorities and approaches to problems between the House and Senate become apparent. It is also a time to urge legislators to take up priority bills that one chamber has passed and might be at risk of languishing in the committee in which they now reside.
