2020 Weekly Legislative Report No. 2

January 10, 2020 - The gavel fell with a bang this week, signaling the beginning of the second half of the legislative biennium. Legislators returning to the State House dove right into work on all kinds of issues. On Wednesday, Governor Phil Scott delivered his State of the State address to the legislature, despite a lengthy and spirited protest in the House Chamber from activists sounding the alarm on climate change.
