

Published on Vermont League of Cities and Towns (<https://www.vlct.org>)

Home > WEBINAR RECORDING: Practical Tips for Writing Local Land Use Board Decisions

---

WEBINAR RECORDING: Practical Tips for Writing Local Land Use Board Decisions

Thank you for purchasing one of VLCT's recorded webinars. As with all of our products, we ask that you do not share this with others outside of your immediate organization. See below for links to access the recording as well as any other materials. Please note that you will need to register after you click on the link to access the recorded webinar.

Click here to access the recorded webinar <sup>[1]</sup>, Practical Tips for Writing Local Land Use Board Decisions.

Click here to download the presentation <sup>[2]</sup>.

Click here to download the Q&A <sup>[3]</sup> for this webinar.

Description

Officials from the Vermont Superior Court's Environmental Division lead a focused review for local land use board members on how to make and write good decisions. As in past trainings, law clerks presented findings of fact and conclusions of law and discussed typical decisions (de novo and on the record). Judges Durkin and Walsh lead an interactive Q&A session to help attendees better understand the land use review and permitting process in Vermont.

Speakers

Honorable Thomas Durkin Presiding Judge, Environmental Division, Superior Court
Honorable Thomas Walsh, Presiding Judge, Environmental Division, Superior Court
Simonne Valcour, Law Clerk, Environmental Division, Superior Court
Benjamin Civiletti, Law Clerk, Environmental Division, Superior Court

Webinar took place on Thursday, October 22, 2020 10:30 am to 11:30 am.

---

Links

[1] <https://register.gotowebinar.com/recording/6465900638949626120>

[2] <https://www.vlct.org/sites/default/files/VLCT%20Power%20Point%20Summer%202020.pdf>

[3] <https://www.vlct.org/sites/default/files/Q%20and%20A%20-%20Land%20Use%20Decisions%20Webinar.pdf>