VERMONT LEAGUE OF CITIES AND TOWNS

ABOUT THE LEAGUE

The Vermont League of Cities and Towns (VLCT) is a non-profit, non-partisan association founded in 1967 to serve the needs and interests of Vermont's municipalities.

VLCT's regular and associate membership, available to local government, has nearly 400 members. They include all 246 Vermont cities and towns as well as numerous villages, housing authorities, county courts, and fire, water, recreation, and solid waste districts.

More than 6,000 elected and appointed municipal officials look to VLCT for legislative advocacy, educational programs, risk management services, and resource sharing. VLCT also works with state agencies, Vermont's congressional delegation, and the National League of Cities to advance municipal interests at the state and federal levels.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The VLCT Associate Membership Program is open to Vermont municipal entities that are not cities or towns. The program allows complete access to VLCT's resources, and gives members the opportunity to interact with public officials at VLCT-sponsored events where they are best situated to learn and share ideas. (VLCT Advocacy does not represent the interests of Associate Members.) Associate members are not voting members of VLCT, nor can associate member officials serve as VLCT Board members or officers.
